

REWARDS

The following rewards can be used as school based rewards. Remember that these items are usually reinforcing to most children. However, what is reinforcing to one child may not be reinforcing to another. Teachers need to make sure that a child wants one of these potential reinforcers and will work for it before the reward is used.

1. Free time for X minutes
2. Talk to best friend
3. Listen to music (with headphones)
4. Read/look at a special book
5. Help clean up classroom
6. Empty recycling
7. Draw on or clean the white board
8. Be teacher's helper
9. Eat lunch outside on a nice day
10. Extra time at recess
11. Write on chalk board
12. Use magic markers
13. Draw a picture
14. Choose book to read to the class
15. Tell an approved joke to the class
16. Read with a friend
17. Care for class animals
18. Play "teacher"
19. Decorate bulletin board
20. Be messenger for office
21. Organize papers
22. Have a treat
23. Wear a special pin/badge
24. Earn a short video for class
25. Student of the Day/Month
26. Pop popcorn
27. Be a line leader
28. Visit the janitor
29. Use the computer
30. Make special sign for the classroom
31. Teach a classmate
32. Choose stickers
33. Take a good note home
34. Receive a positive phone call
35. Receive "class cheer"
36. Hide a special note in desk
37. Choose seat for specific time
38. Playing card games
39. Receive award certificate
40. Draw from "grab bag"
41. Eat at special table
42. Visit the principal

Have the child draw a picture of a larger prize; laminate it, and cut it into pieces. The child can earn one puzzle piece per day. When the puzzle is complete, the prize is earned.